

Mr Baafour Asiamah-Adjei

- Founder & CEO of Genser Energy
- +13 years of power and infrastructure development in Africa with emphasis on distributed generation for private clients, natural gas midstream assets and port developments.
- Grown company from inception to 225MW across 6 power plants and 80km of natural gas pipelines (with an additional 240km to be completed in 2020).
- Previously with McKinsey & Company's North America Operations Practice where he was a specialist in production systems design and advised clients on the implementation of Lean Manufacturing principles across varied industries.
- Holds a BSc in Mechanical Engineering from MIT with an emphasis in Operations Research.