Miguel Zaldivar	Welcome to Hogan Lovells. My name is Miguel Zaldivar. We put clients at the center of everything we do, with a strong commitment to client service. Our client's place their trust in us, whether it is helping them distribute Covid-19 vaccines around the world, or leading them through the biggest and most complex transactions and disputes, or helping them navigate the emergence of 5G, AI, and cyber security. These are conversations we're having every day, advising clients that are changing the world. Our clients tell us that working with our lawyers is different, that we show a real commitment to their success, that we invest in our relationship with them. That we understand what is important to them. That we have a real understanding of their industry sector. We're recognized for our cross-border capabilities. Sustainability, pro bono, diversity and inclusion are critically important to us. Our vision for Hogan Lovells is to make a meaningful and positive impact in our firm, in our society, and to establish ourselves as leaders in this area. It is one of our five priorities as a firm, and we have made it a real commitment to achieve this, including setting ambitious goals for our firm.
